Arts, Crafts Fair Sunday

The annual Arts and Crafts Fair, sponsored by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry, will be held at Williams Park, from 10:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., on Sunday, July 9.

There will be over 75 booths featuring the handiwork of artists and craftsmen from three states for viewing and purchasing.

There will be booths featuring woodcarving, quilting and stuffed animals, paintings done in oil, acrylic and water colors, hand-made doll clothes, homemade bakery goods, silk-flower arrangements, hand-made and painted ceramics, jewelry and much more.

The Chamber will be making awards in the afternoon to the best artists and craftsmen in the judgement of Chamber representatives.

Food and refreshments will be served in the Lions Club Pavilion.

There will be face painting and other special events for the children.

The Chamber, which will benefit from the proceeds of the Fair, urges everyone to attend and hopefully purchase that special piece of artwork for themselves or for gifts.

First National Bank to open 1st branch

The First National Bank of Antioch will be building its first branch facility in a shopping mall under construction in Gurnee.

The planned new 3,250-square foot bank building will be located in the Brookside Green retail mall, off of Grand Ave. and Hunt Club Rd.

The mall is being built by Fogelson Companies, Inc., developers of three residential areas near the proposed mall site.

This will be a full-service branch bank with space for the parking of 45 cars.

The entire mall will be 88,500 square feet in size, including the bank building which will be in an outlot of the mall.

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the bank are expected to take place in the near future.

Village eyes tighter zoning committee

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

The Antioch Village Board wants to put village zoning under even more careful scrutiny than it is now by the possible establishment of a zoning review committee.

After a discussion on the committee, held at the last regular board meeting, Mayor Robert Wilton said that the entire board, two members from the planning commission and two from the zoning board would be on the review committee.

This will also entail the hiring of a planner for all the property west of Deep Lake Rd. The planner will work closely with the committee and assist the committee in constructing the final review ordinance.

In other business to do with present and future Antioch development, the board approved Phase 3 of the Pine Hill Lakes development. There are two more phases of this development to go.

The board also sent Phase 1 of Al Little's Wind Creek development to the planning commission for consideration. This development is across from Pine Hill Lakes.

In other business, the board:

- passed an ordinance requiring that there be no used car dealerships in the village unless they are connected to a new car dealership.

- approved Wilton's appointments to the parks commission: Bruce Bartose, Sue Glenn, Patty Murphy, Carol Hintz, Vicki Axton, Pam Podstawa and Lyle Wilson.

- approved the sending of letters to eight village property owners informing them that their property violates village codes. (Junk cars, operating a business in a residential section, littering, etc.)

- appropriated $25,000 to hire a new fire inspector. No interviews have been held.

- set a public hearing on the appropriations for the operation of the various village departments for 7 p.m., on Monday, July 10, at the village hall.

It's the berries

It's strawberry picking time at Thompson's Strawberry Farm in Bristol as hundreds of berry pickers a day, from Wisconsin and Illinois, crowd out to Bristol to pick their own berries at a fraction of the grocery store cost, while they get a tan and eat a few free luscious red berries on the side. The Greenslade family from Glenview, Grandpa, Grandma, Jeff, Mom and Jamie, enjoy their annual trek to Thompson's. — Photo by Gloria Davis.

'Loophole' frees seller, legislators kill gun bill

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspaper

When Illinois State Law Enforcement and Lake County officials raided the gun show at the Lake County Fairgrounds a few months back, arresting 50 gun sellers for infringement of the present gun control laws, at least one attorney and one of those arrested have come out against State's Atty. Fred Foreman's first prosecution of those arrested.

Atty. Jim Schwarzbach, who

the gun to a police officer because "of his clean cut look and the fact that he was wearing handcuffs."

Tylkowski also testified that, though the officer did not show him any identification, he did tell the defendant that he was an officer.

The police officer testified that he did not have visible handcuffs on his person.

There are those that might think that the defendant was just lucky in finding an credit for the killing of this bill.

Members of the Illinois Senate are calling for the exposition of "the lies and misinformation," used by NRA lobbyists in successfully combating this legislation.

But legislators in other parts of the country are acting on the prevention of the use of automatic weapons.

In California, the state assembly approved a bill making the maximum penalty for possession or sale of a machinegun or sawed-off shotgun, five years in prison (up from three years). The state senate received this bill on Monday.

The assembly also approved two bills making it against the law to give a firearm to a minor without the written consent of the parents or guardians.

"The misinformation, the outright lies, blatant falsehoods about this bill are clearly what killed it," said Rep. Barbara Flynn-Currie (D-Chicago), chief sponsor of a proposal to restrict semi-automatic weapons which was killed last week by the Illinois State Assembly by a 68-46 vote. The Ill State Senate had already approved the bill before it went to the House.

successfully defended gun seller, Richard Tylkowski in front of a Lake County jury last month, claims, "My client was found not guilty of violating the 72-hour delivery law by a 12-man jury because Fred Foreman's office failed badly in the burden of proving him guilty."

Tylkowski was arrested after selling a gun to an undercover police officer and delivering it to him on the spot, without waiting the 72 hours to deliver the gun as called for by Illinois law.

But the law also states that the waiting period is not necessary when the buyer is a law enforcement official.

"The defense proved that Tylkowski knew he was selling the gun to a police officer, therefore he did not violate the law," said Schwarzbach.

During the two-day trial, Tylkowski testified that he knew that he was selling attorney that found a "loophole" in the law that was upheld by the jury.

Swarzbach claims that assumption is neither here nor there. "The point is that Foreman's office failed miserably in its duty by going to court without doing their homework, costing the taxpayers unwarranted money and destroying people's lives," added the defense attorney.

He castigated Foreman for "depending on the publicity of pictures of himself in the newspapers, waving a K-47," instead of doing his job.

"If this had been handled properly, my client's case would never have reached the courtroom," said Schwarzbach.

In the gun control controversy, a proposal to restrict semiautomatic weapons was shot down by the Ill. State Assembly last week. Strong lobbying by the National Rifle Assn. is being given

County election judges to be reappointed

The reappointment of all Lake County election judges—both Democratic and Republican—has begun, according to Lake County Clerk Linda Hess.

"Under election law, every two years the political parties review the lists of current judges and appoint/reappoint judges to serve for the next two year period," said Hess.

This year we have really streamlined the process for precinct committeemen who do the reviewing and appointing for their respective Central Committees," Hess continued. "And we're taking a stronger approach with committeemen regarding the appointment of judges."

"Many of the problems we have on election day or in scheduling judges to work each election can be avoided by paying attention to details during the appointment period. This year we're making a direct appeal to committeemen to be mindful of their appointments."

Hess said to speed up the process each committeeman will get a computer listing of judges appointed in his/her precinct. This list is accompanied, for the first time, by an instruction sheet, 10 Easy Steps to Complete the Election Judge Recommissioning Process, to aid them in completing this correctly. "In an effort to be consistent and to be more efficient, we've included a standardized instruction form.

"Also we want to reward judges who have worked frequently and have attended training. For the first time, the computer generated list of judges indicates how many elections each judge has worked in the previous two-year period. If a judge hasn't worked at all, or has worked little," says Hess, "we're asking committeemen to appoint others who will be more dependable on election day. Similarly, we want to encourage the judges to attend training, and we are asking committeemen to review this component, also, before appointing a judge."

Both Betty Ann Moore, Democratic Central Committee chair, and Bob Neal, Republican Central Committee chair, agreed to the streamlined procedures.

Letters went out to committeemen during the week of June 14. In addition, all election judges will receive a notice that their appointments will expire this fall unless they are reappointed.

The Central Committees will submit the final lists to the County Clerk's office by July 17. In August, the list of judges will be submitted to the Taxation, Election and Management Services Committee for approval, and then to the full County Board at its September meeting.

Mayor says few words

All little queens

Amber crowns Jamie

Kim, Jamie new queens

Kimberly Pankaukas will reign as Antioch's new queen for the next year, appearing at all municipal functions and riding in Antioch's many parades. She made the triumphant victory walk in front of a standing-room only crowd in the auditorium of Antioch Community High School on Saturday evening. Anne Kakacek emceed the Miss Antioch Pageant, as Pankaukas was crowned by her predecessor, Miss Antioch, 1988, Stephanie Vogt. Mayor Robert Wilton put the banners on the winners. Jamie Jorgenson was crowned Little Miss Antioch, 1989, also in the high school auditorium. Amber Dusak, Little Miss Antioch, 1988, treated the audience, when in farewell she distributed a bouquet of daisies

Old pine tree forest faces developer's saw, ax

Antioch's Mayor Robert Wilton is concerned about a pine tree forest filled with 1,000 pine trees, planted years ago by Ed Vos, well-known Antioch native, that might be headed for the developers' ax.

The pine trees are located on four of the 12-acre Zimmerman property now under subdivision development.

"Previous approval on the development plans, given by the village, gives the developers carte blanche on what to do with the trees," says Wilton.

After a recent walk-through of the 12-acres by the village board, Wilton will be bringing the matter in front of the board at the next village meeting on July 24.

"It's too beautiful to be destroyed," said Wilton, adding, "After the mistake we made by letting 30 old oaks be chopped down in Pine Hill Lakes, we have to consider this one carefully."

Baton lessons

Attention beginners or advanced twirlers: Antioch Parks and Recreation is offering summer baton lessons. The class is held from 1 to 2 p.m. on Mondays at the Antioch High School gym.

PM&L

Larry Bersie, director of PM&L Theatre's summer musical production "Li'l Abner" has announced his cast. Daisy Mae will be played by Melody Preston of Ingleside. Preston is a student at Grant High School and was most recently seen in its production of "Annie." The title role of Abner is Antioch's Stephen Biel, a student at Ill. State Univ. Biel's most notable credit is Conrad Birdie in "Bye, Bye, Birdie." The show brings Al Capp's cartoon characters alive, dancing and singing their way through Dogpatch, USA. Some of the most memorable characters are Mammy and Pappy Yokum (Tracy Kiederlen of Antioch and Rob Findlay of Fox Lake), Romeo Scragg (Ken Scheske of Antioch), Earthquake McGoon (Vaughn Filwelt of Antioch), Marrying Sam (Sander Sundberg of Ingleside), and Senator Phogbound (Paul Biel of Antioch). The play opens July 28 and runs for three weekends. The theater is located at 877 Main St. in Antioch. For reservations call (312)395-3055.

Postpone hearing

The public hearing that was set for July 3, concerning the pre-annexation agreement on Sequoit Harbor, has been postponed until 7 p.m., on Monday, Aug. 7, at the village hall.

Cox killed when hit by train

An Antioch Community High School graduate was struck and killed by a train July 2.

L. Justin Cox, age 19, was pronounced dead at Condell Memorial Hospital at 11:45 p.m., according to Lake County Coroner Barbara Richardson.

The cause of death, Richardson said, was multiple traumatic injuries.

Cox graduated from Antioch High in 1988 after having transferred from Grayslake.

The accident happened south of Lake St. in Grayslake, according to Grayslake Police Dept. where an investigation is continuing.

Grayslake Fire and Rescue personnel transferred Cox to Condell.

Funeral arrangements are being handled by Strang Funeral Home in Grayslake. Visitation was held July 4.

Cox was a freshman at College of Lake County in Grayslake. He had previously lived in Spring, Texas for nine years before moving to Grayslake four years ago.

He is survived by his mother, Lori (Babuta) Cox of Grayslake and his father, Leslie K. Cox of Antioch. He had one sister, Stephanie and one brother, Joshua.

1st National to Gurnee

The First National Bank of Antioch will open its first branch facility in Brookside Green, a retail center on Grand Ave. at Hunt Club Rd., west of Gurnee. The full-service facility will have parking for 45 cars. Ground will be broken for the retail center and the 3,250 square-foot bank building soon.

GLS makes decisions

Decisions made by the Grass Lake Grade School Board at the June meeting include:

- the re-running of referendums on the education rate increase up to .49 and a $1.6 building expansion in the November election. Both referendums were narrowly defeated in the April election. The impending development of subdivisions in the school district brought this approval about.

- appointed a budget committee of John Petkus and Pam Pierson.

- commended staff members Gene Leonard, Elvira Poli, and Steve Skurski for perfect attendance.

- because the referenda did not pass, rescinded a policy that allowed students whose families were in the process of building a home in the school district to attend school.

A tree honoring Spiering will be planted at center

June 26 was the 90th birthday of Dolly Spiering and 50 members and guests of the Antioch AARP All Stars Band celebrated with her at a party given by her daughter, Dorothy Leable, at Hunter's Country Club in Richmond.

Spiering, who is a member of the band and a dancer in the popular Can Can revue, will have a tree planted at the Antioch Senior Center in July in her honor.

The date for the planting ceremony is still to be announced. It will be a big event in Antioch since Spiering is a well-known figure who has lived in the area her entire life.

Her generous contributions to the Antioch Rescue Squad, the Lakes Region Historical Society, the Antioch Community Library, the Antioch Women's Club, the Antioch Mental health Thrift Shop and the Antioch Senior Center, which she and her deceased husband help to build, have been a great help in improving the life-style of the Antioch community.

New AARP officers

Along The Way With Annie Mae

Old Annie Mae is about to make her annual climb on top of her soap box!

It happened again. There I was tooling down Rte. 173, on my way to Burger King for breakfast, and zingo, there was that dreaded ping-ping, and another 10 rust marks were born on my Edsel.

Of course the perpetrator was about two car lengths ahead of me, the dreaded uncovered gravel truck.

How do they get away with damaging other people's property because they (gravel truck owners) either are too lazy, or just plain think they are above the law!

Because it is a law you know, a state law, that all trucks carrying loose sand and gravel MUST BE COVERED.

I called the Lake County Sheriff's Dept. and the Ill. State Police and their representatives both agreed that it is a law and they also agreed that it is seldom enforced, but could give me no reason why it isn't.

Now I ask you, have you ever seen a loaded gravel truck covered?

Old Annie Mae hasn't, and I've stayed as far as five car lengths behind them when traffic allows, but I still hear that dreaded ping-ping.

Of course a pitted car is the least of the damage. I, as well as many friends and neighbors, have had our car windshields busted by the loose missiles that fly through the air around a loaded gravel truck with the greatest of ease.

Sure, most insurance policies cover broken windshields without a deductible, but what about the inconvenience of taking the car to be fixed and being without one while it's being worked on?

You'd think that the insurance companies would ban together and see that the law is enforced with the zillions of dollars those negligent gravel truck owners cost them annually.

With itsy-bitsy cars costing as much as $8,000 now, and the metal used in

Detroit not much thicker than heavy-duty aluminum foil, this flying gravel does a nice bit of damage and all the other people on the road are told is, "too bad, so sad!"

If one confronts the driver, or the gravel truck owner the first question asked is, "Did the gravel fly off of the top of the truck, or did it come from other parts of the truck, or maybe jump up from the road?"

What difference does it make, if that identified flying object originated on the truck's apron, it's still the company's negligence.

How much time could it take to roll an in-place cover over the pile of gravel, secure it and blow all the loose gravel off of the truck?

However long it takes, and whatever minute the cost of the amount of time spent, the gravel companies should be forced to spend it in deference to the rest of the drivers and their vehicles traveling on the same roads.

Ready for book sale

Tom and Arlene Plenka sort books in preparation for the used book sale which will be held at the Lakes Region Historical Society Museum on July 8 and 9, from 10:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. The museum is located at the corner of Main and Depot Sts.

Jennings magna cum laude

Theodore Charles Jennings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred T. Jennings of Antioch, and spouse of Sarah Jennings, was among 166 graduates who participated in Culver-Stockton College's 133rd annual commencement ceremony. Jennings received a bachelor of arts degree in English, graduating magna cum laude for maintaining a 3.75 average. He is a 1985 graduate of Antioch Community High School.

Engagement

Guido-Vivirito

Wayne Vivirito and Kathleen Guido of Lake Villa, announce their engagement. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Ronald E. Pribyl of St. John United Church of Christ in Palatine on Oct. 7.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph V. Guido, Sr. of Lake Villa. She is a 1969 graduate of Carmel High School and employed as a nail technician for Via Venato in Highland Park.

The groom-to-be is a 1967 graduate of Maine Twp. High School South in Park Ridge and a 1972 graduate of the Univ. of Ill. with a bachelor of science degree in pharmacy. He is a pharmacist/co-owner of Kings Pharmacy in Antioch.

The couple plans to settle in Lake Villa.

Gurnee, Antioch investigate thefts

Gurnee and Antioch police worked together to solve a burglary in Gurnee which featured motives similar to those used in Antioch burglaries.

According to a Gurnee police report, the secretary at the Gurnee Family Inn phoned reporting suspicious circumstances June 27 when a vehicle was parked on the north side of Grandview Ave.

Thomas Nicholl, age 20, of Antioch, was arrested for improper use of registration.

Fred Ray of Zion, a

Dean's List

Brett A. Parkhurst, a senior at Northland College, Asland, Wis., son of Carol and David Parkhurst, Antioch, qualified for the college's dean's list for outstanding academic performance in the 1989 winter/spring term. He is majoring in biology/outdoor recreation.

security guard at Gurnee Family Inn, told police he saw three white males on the back of a pick-up truck. The security guard did not give chase when one of the three ran to the north end of the area. He described the suspect as 5-9, stockily built and wearing a white t-shirt. A Gurnee police officer wrote in the report that a hole had been cut in the fence of the supply area of American Process Systems.

American Process Systems reported stainless steel products stolen from its Gurnee plant. A representative, Kevin Lenihan of American Process Systems told police that scrap metal sells for .50 a pound and the value of the items found was $500.

Gurnee turned the boltcutters over to Antioch police. Antioch Police said in the report that they had been experiencing break-ins through fences.

Scholarship

Thomas Fry, Antioch, has received a University of Ill. Children of Veterans Scholarship.

Wedding

Hill-Wilson

Effie Hill of Puyallup, Wash. and Joel Wilson of Antioch, exchanged wedding vows on June 2. Rev. Ron Hill of Temple Baptist Church in Tacoma, Wash. officiated the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Hill of Puyallup. She is a 1987 graduate of Rodgers High School.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Wilson of Antioch. He is a 1982 graduate of Antioch Community High School and a 1988 graduate of The Master's College and has a bachelor of arts degree in business administration. He is employed as a serviceman for Northern Door Co. of Antioch.

Representing who?

If residents of Arbor Vista, a neighborhood of fine homes located equidistant from Grayslake, Libertyville, and Mundelein are wondering about the meaning of representative government, it's no wonder. Representing who? they are asking.

Arbor Vista homeowners are up in arms and rightfully so because plans for a new road call for a corner of their subdivision being wiped out in the construction process. Their predicament is especially rankling when engineers refuse to budge on pleas to relocate the highway northward where there appears to be plenty of room—like about 400 acres.

Lake County's Springfield delegation has been strangely silent. State Sen. Adeline Geo-Karis, a vociferous critic of Lake County Forest Preserve District's aggressive condemnation policy for land acquisition, has been taken to task for not speaking out on impending IDOT condemnation to acquire land in the vicinity of Rtes. 45 and 120.

Along with Geo-Karis' seeming indifference, Arbor Vista has been rubbed raw by the fact that one of State Rep. Robert Churchill's law partners represented a Chicago speculator in the annexation of strategically located land to Grayslake.

The Arbor Vista residents have hinted that political leaders appear to be more interested in special interest than public interest. Under the circumstances, it's hard to argue that they are not on target.

World class living

Before too long, serious bettors—the ones who like their wagering trackside—will have the best of all worlds. Right here.

To the south, there's the rebuilt Arlington Park, reborn after a disastrous fire 22 months ago as Arlington International Racecourse, by its own declaration as well as others, the best thoroughbred horse track in the world. To the north, what is being billed as the "largest dog track in the world," is on the way at Kenosha.

When both tracks are running simultaneously, bettors will be in a tizzy. No wonder politicians are hurrying to build Rte. 53. The six-lane superhighway might well become Wagering Way, carrying racing fans from one world class track to another. The joke will be if Rte. 53 materializes as another tollway. Then the wagers will be fleeced at both ends and the middle.

Fitful honeymoons

Of all the newly elected mayors April 4, none has experienced a shorter honeymoon than mild-mannered, thoughtful Mayor James "Jim" Kay of Lake Zurich, who has run into a buzz saw of criticism from supposed friends and foes alike.

With the legendary "100 days" still to be reached, July 13, Mayor Kay embodies the new executives who may be wondering why they ran for office. Kay even has been scolded by a Cook County weekly editor for being "too public" in the conduct of public business. What on earth does that mean? Kay isn't alone. The same publishing company took a swipe at Mayor Marv Smith of Grayslake for "rushing" into an annexation that has been on the griddle for 10 months. Duties became so demanding that Mayor Marilyn Sindles of Mundelein quickly quit her day job to devote more time to village business.

If anything, the fledgling mayors have had their hands full finding out who's who in the city hall and developing an agenda for the next four years. Expecting much more and criticizing them for less just doesn't make much sense in our book, besides, preaching and grouching is totally unfair.

If your mayor is brand new, folks, give "Hizonner" a chance. Your understanding and support now will pay dividends later in better government.

Closure's bright side

Like every good economist knows, there are two sides (at least) to every scenario. Now comes Robert P. Hartwig, writing in the Illinois Business Review, a respected publication of the Bureau of Economic and Business Research University of Illinois, that the simultaneous and irrevocable negative effects of the closing of Chanute Air Force Base at downstate Rantoul "are not necessarily justified." We suspect that examining the other side of the Ft. Sheridan closing story might produce a similar finding.

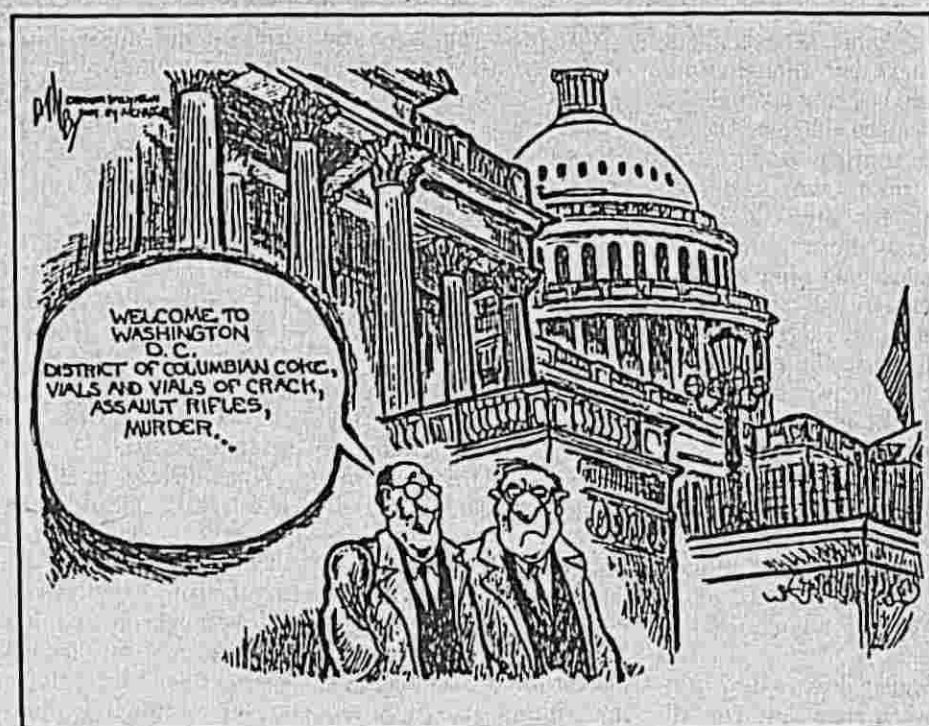

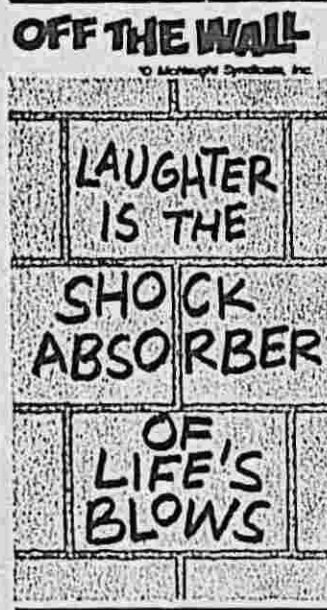

Hartwig produced evidence that closure of Chanute might actually benefit Rantoul and that the civilian community most certainly can recover. Lake County and the area surrounding Ft. Sheridan has all the resources of Rantoul—and then some—to rebound from the loss of a military establishment to the local economy.

The federal government is all set to deal with Doubting Thomas' and whiners who insist doom is inevitable when the military moves out. Hartwig refers to five steps offered for recovery by the (ahem) U.S. Defense Secretary's Commission on Base Realignment and Closure. The five steps amount to soft soap and balderdash: "Form a local organization to provide strong leadership" is No. 1. You get the idea.

Getting back to reality, the article stressed that Rantoul possesses advantages it probably doesn't know that it had while living under the military shadow—location, transportation, nearness to the U of I Champaign-Urbana campus, affordable housing, expanding industrial base, etc. It's pretty impressive. Should anything lesser be expected of Ft. Sheridan's neighbors?

Frankly, the crying towel just doesn't seem to be justified. We're starting to feel better about the whole closure business.

River 'jump' spells promise for commuting

by BILL SCHROEDER

Something happened approximately five years ago that bodes well for the future of rail commuting in this locality.

That's when interest in rail commuting "jumped the Des Plaines River" in the words of Glenn Ahrenholz, railroad chairman of the North Suburban Mass Transit Dist. (Nortran), an arm of the Regional Transportation Authority.

The jump was in the form of Libertyville and Buffalo Grove, which Ahrenholz represents, joining Nortran, to become the point when rail commuting interest began spreading westward in earnest.

Sure, there are rail commuters living in Mundelein, Grayslake, the Round Lake area and Fox Lake, for example, but they don't view commuting with the fervor and dedication as folks in, say, Lake Forest and Deerfield. There, Nortran committee members feel, died-in-wool train riders understand what rail commuting is all about.

Ahrenholz and fellow Nortran trustees would be delighted if more Lakeland communities "joined the team." Their support is vitally needed to realize a commuting system on Wisconsin Central tracks. Such a reality would bring rail commuting culture—and trains—to such communities as Vernon Hills, Antioch, Lake Villa and Buffalo Grove. Grayslake and the Round Lake area would have the distinction of having the service of two rail commuter lines.

Precious land is becoming a scarce commodity. There will be little or none left for road building before too long. Without a doubt, rail commuting is the wave of the future like it was in the 1920's.

Quick note: Nortran trustees also are looking at the possibilities of commuter service on the EJ&E Outerbelt Line that cuts diagonally across central and southwest Lake County. Putting passenger service on the EJ&E opens up the possibility of travelers boarding at S. Milwaukee Ave. or of Lake Zurich trips to South Barrington or the Elgin area. Wouldn't that be something!

Nortran trustees are brimming over with wondrous ideas to move people from one place to another. The most intriguing thought about their plans is that the right-of-way already is in place. Not one speck of land will have to be purchased!

STARTING—Western Development Corp. moguls are assembling a group of notables Wednesday, July 19, to help break ground for Gurnee Mills, the huge retail center at Grand Ave. and the Northern Illinois Tollway that is destined to become one of the largest shopping centers in the nation. Gentleman, man your shovels.

WONDERING—A personal experience to illustrate why people get hot under the collar about their summertime Commonwealth Edison electric bills: I compared my latest ComEd bill with the previous charge and found a difference of one kilowatt hour used—1,413, to 1,414. Yet the latest bill was $156.84, compared to the last charge of $100.14. Whoa!

I've checked this out before, both as a newspaperman and a homeowner, and received ComEd's standard explanation about "summer differential" and "peak rate loading," etc. So I know there's no mistake and the difference is legal. But that doesn't make it logical—or right. And thousands of other ComEd customers feel the same. There's nothing we can do about it but pay. Unless we want to cook on charcoal and light our homes with a candle.

NIGHTMARE—Building Comm. Fred Dierker of Fox Lake offers a good reason why a building permit is a good investment for a homeowner who might be inclined to look at the fee as just another way of padding the village coffers.

Dierker described a homeowner who complained about shoddy workmanship involving repairs from a fire. His inspectors found a table top used to repair a hole in the roof, blue shingles used to replace damaged black shingles, and plywood nailed over charred doors. "It was a nightmare," Dierker observed.

ONE MAN'S FAMILY—Mom and pop are plowing through a familiar household plight: counseling the first-time car buyer. Bob is in the market for a car. Late model used, or vintage? Standard or compact? BT or sports bomb? Low miles or high miles? Buying a first car is one of life's rough moments. Like picking a college, I'm reminded of the saying that "You are what you're going to be at age 19." Maybe. The car that ends up in our driveway will be more than transportation. It'll be a preview of the future. Heavy stuff, all right.

Politically Speaking

by JOSEPH SOULAK
Lakeland Newspapers

"I'm being made the scapegoat," says Norman Geary. The County Board chairman was referring to his former job as Avon Twp. supervisor lost in April to Russ Christian & Co.

The new administration is talking about a tax hike and tax anticipation warrants (which cost taxpayers money). A newspaper account says:

"The new supervisor claims the previous administration under Norman Geary may have cut too deep when it slashed its budget last August by more than 7 percent for fiscal 1990....

"We'll be out of money by February of next year. The budget for this fiscal year won't leave us with any cash in our account come February. I don't like to operate that way, Christian said."

It's a lie, Geary said. "Last year the township started with a $60,000 deficit and ended by turning an $80,000 surplus in two accounts over to the new administration," he said. He went on to say the Avon Twp. tax rate was always among the lowest in Lake County during his 26 years in office.

Geary said the new administration has also cut the number of township patients at Winchester

House in Libertyville to less than the entitled 21 or 23. Geary said he always had 30 or more at the county care facility in Libertyville.

"No matter what it is, somebody will find a way to blame me," Geary said.

False alarm on the family picnic for Sheriff Clinton Grinnell. Planners say it will now be held Sunday, Aug. 27.

Originally scheduled for Grinnell's Fremont Twp. farm, the event is being moved for security reasons. A different date and location (most likely the Greek monastery grounds) is being picked to avoid conflict with a cornfest on Saturday, Aug. 26, in Wauconda Twp.

Grinnell's is like a family picnic. The cost will be $25 for the entire family.

You can tell a Democrat from a Republican by looking at their front lawn. So says National Geographic.

In the turf battle checked by a geography professor and graduate student in Delaware, "Republican or conservative yards were neater and more orderly. They had significantly higher scores for maintenance—pruning, trimming, edging—and condition of the grass."

Democratic lawns had a greater diversity of vegetation—greater numbers of trees, bushes and shrubs.

Flag gets some respect

Intentional display of the American flag on a floor or the ground will be banned under a bill approved by the Ill. General Assembly. It was co-sponsored by state Sen. Adeline J. Geo-Karis (R-Zion) of the 31st Dist.

"I was appalled by the deliberate display of our flag on the floor in a Chicago Art Institute exhibit earlier this year," Geo-Karis said. "How anyone can bear to treat this symbol of our country with such disrespect is beyond my understanding."

Geo-Karis said her legislation (SB 176) will make it illegal to intentionally display the U.S. flag on the ground or on a floor. Anyone disobeying the proposed law could go to prison for one to three years and be fined up to $10,000.

"Such strong penalties are appropriate for desecration of our flag," Sen. Geo-Karis said. "Thousands and thousands of people have fought and given their lives over the past two centuries to uphold our flag and the nation it represents. To place the flag where it can be walked upon is a slap in the face to all of us who love our country."

The bill now goes to the governor. It was co-sponsored by Senators Walter Dudyecz and Robert Raica (R-Chicago), Tom Dunn (D-Joliet), Ted Lechowicz (D-Chicago), Jim Rea (D-Christopher) and

Adeline Geo-Karis

Patrick Welch (D-Peru).

Geo-Karis and Dudyecz are also sponsors of SJR 84, approved by the Illinois Senate, which urges the Congress to propose an amendment to the U.S. Constitution making it illegal to publicly desecrate the flag.

Hometown bloopers

I have decided one thing concerning this column, it should be renamed "Hometown Goodies and Bloopers!" I have discovered while my readers enjoy being informed of town events, school events, anniversaries, birthdays, etc., they equally enjoy reading about some unfortunate person's bloopers. I imagine in a way we laugh at ourselves and life in general as we laugh at the funny situations that occasionally plague others. This was made perfectly clear to me after I received seven calls concerning my mention of Denny Gumb's dentures beating him to the bottom of that now infamous flight of stairs. Naturally the calls had to do with denture mishaps. Here is my condensed version of all the stories told to me. Please read on to see if any of the following pertains to you.

(A) Just how do you punish a dog after discovering he has chewed up your prized possessions you carelessly left on the night stand? (B) How dirty did your dentures get that day you sneezed them out in that mall parking lot? (C) Remember the evening you fell at the bowling alley and how quickly you crawled to retrieve those wayward choppers? (D) How did you feel the only morning you left your plate home to soak while you quickly drove your daughter to the school bus? Surely you could not foresee that stalling of your car and the friendly neighbors amused look as he stopped to rescue you. (E) How did you ever locate those dentures that beat you to the bottom of Lake Marie after you dove into the water for a relaxing dip? (F) How many people were there to witness your upper plate stuck in that apple? (G) Were you really embarrassed at the NYE party when your extremely intoxicated date was noticed holding his dentures in the palm of his hand, after all they belonged to him not to you. Eventually you will forget the look of wonderment on his face as he pondered what they were and how they had ended up in his hand.

Keeping these incidents in mind, everyone must remember the denture bandit strikes when you least expect it and if he strikes you remember that state for laughter has been set by the unfortunate few before you.

Congratulations Groh
Congratulations are in order for Julie Groh of Antioch. At the June 20

Grass Lake School Board meeting, Julie was appointed to the board seat vacated by Mary Beth Walsh. Julie has a strong interest in quality education, not only as a parent but also an educator. She has been very active in GLS wearing the hats of wife, mother, teacher, scout leader, PTO volunteer, etc. you can also put on the cap of a school board member. Thanks for caring enough to give of your time so freely.

Christmas ideas
I just wanted to ask Sally

Hometown Goodies

since her son, Christopher, started kindergarten. Chris is in the sixth grade and his sister, Sara, is in the second grade.

Knowing Julie personally, I feel safe in saying she will be a conscientious, dedicated board member and her service on the board will definitely benefit GLS. I have been told the qualifications for each and everyone of the five applicants were excellent. All persons who applied for this vacant seat should be applauded. In my opinion, this much interest in a school speaks well of a community. The superintendent and board would like to thank all applicants for their interest, and a big hip hip hooray from Lizard and readers to Julie on receiving the appointment. So now, Julie, along with Hiller and Pat Santiemmo what they would like for Christmas from the Lizard. Perhaps an appointment calendar would be an appropriate gift. What do you think? Let me know!

Craft fair

Mark the date July 9 on your calendars. This is the date for the annual arts and crafts show to be held in Williams Park. The show will begin at 10:30 a.m. and will end at 5 p.m. It may be a good opportunity to start your Christmas shopping early for the special people in your life. What gift could be better than a beautiful, unique, hand crafted gift.

Maxwell St. days

Start setting aside your pennies to cash in on all the bargains to be found at Antioch's Annual Maxwell Street Days. The dates for this annual event are July 27, 28, 29 and 30. Stores will be open from 9 a.m. until 8 p.m. on Thursday, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Friday, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturday, and 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Sunday. It is a good opportunity to get those back to school clothes and school supplies. See you there!

Dinners planned

The Lion's Club chicken BBQ is scheduled for August and the Rotary pork chop dinner is scheduled for September. The dates and locations will be announced later.

Relocated Antiochians

As mentioned before, we have several relocated Antiochians who still receive our hometown paper in their new hometowns. Several of these out of state readers are members of the Mike Christopolus family. Like the Bennetts of Georgia, Mike, Lori, Tiffany, and Tara all squabble over who will read the paper first. I was recently instructed to say hello to the Christopolus family and tell them if they move back to Antioch, they will not find it necessary to fight over the news from their former hometown. Remember, the same roads that led you to Florida are also waiting to lead you back to Antioch. So if the heat and humidity get to be too much for you, pack those bags and things and come back home to your friends and snowy weather fun in season.

Looks great

The residents along Elime Rd., Mary Ann Rd., and Clara Ave. would like to thank Mark Ring of the Twp. Road Dept. for his quick response in cutting back the tall grasses and weeds along the side of the roads. This increases visibility drastically especially around curves and therefore make the roads safer not only for cars, but bikers, walkers, and skateboarders. Thank, Mark, you did a fine job and not only does it make things safer but it looks good too!

Hellos

Darlene Clauson, glad you are enjoying your new home in Emmons School Dist. Keep reading and remember to call us with some news. My hellos this week are as such, hi from the Lizard to Marie Kelley, Jo Dyvorak, John Steitz, Bill Lepsi, and Gayle Milowski.

THE GREAT GEM MINE

On July 8th, we are going to bury 400 gems; garnets, amethysts, sapphires, pearls, opals, citrines and blue topazes worth $4000, in five cubic yards of sand, located in front of our store at Pershing Plaza. You are invited to dig in our mine and keep any gem you find absolutely FREE.

Mine Hours:

8 AM to 5 PM, unless all the gems are found in which case the mine will be closed.

Mine Rules:

1. Miners must be 18 or older
 2. Miners must wear shoes or sandals. (Finding a faceted gem with a bare foot is not fun!)
 3. Miners will be provided with large cups with which they will be allowed one quick scoop. No probing the mine allowed as we want to allow as many people as possible to have a chance to dig.
 4. Miners will then take their cup of sand to our assayers for sifting.
 5. Miners may get in line for another try.
- If they wish, lucky miners can go into our store and purchase a mounting which are available for any gem they find.

This is our way of saying thank you to the people of Antioch and surrounding areas.

BUSINESS

BUSINESS BRIEFS

Mundelein

Two Venture stores in Lake County may soon be sold as its parent company, May Dept. Store, Inc., is reportedly seeking the possibility of selling the discount segment of its business. The Venture stores are located in Mundelein and Waukegan. May Chairman and Chief Executive Officer David Farrell said the move would allow his company to concentrate on its department store and specialty shoe store operations.

Antioch

New Age Construction Co. of Antioch has been appointed as a dealer for Wick Homes. The company has been building homes in the area for the last five years. It holds the highly respected designation of H.O.W. builder and provides the Home Owners Warranty 10-year new home warranty. New Age is presently building homes in Spring Dale Trails in Spring Grove, East Loon Lake Subdivision in Antioch and Val Mar Subdivision in Wisconsin.

Grayslake

State Oil Company of Grayslake has been presented the "Marketer of the Year" award for the largest gasoline volume by Unocal 76. The award was presented to Pete and Bill Anest, owners, at a gala celebration held by Unocal at the Ritz Carlton Hotel in Chicago. State Oil Company has been a Unocal marketer since 1970 and serves the Greater Chicago area.

Waukegan

Timothy J. Harrington, president of Victory Health Services in Waukegan, received a $10,000 check from Michael Duffey, treasurer of Outboard Marine Corporation, in support of Victory Memorial Hospital's new Cardiac Catheterization Lab. The lab is providing this comprehensive diagnostic procedure to patients of northern Lake County.

Bank of Northern Illinois (formerly The First National Bank of Waukegan) has announced the near completion of a planned two phase renovation and remodeling of its banking office at 1 S. Genessee St. in Waukegan. The 137-year-old financial institution, the oldest in Lake County, will spend over $200,000 before finally completing the first phase, which mainly concentrates on the north and west exposures of the 23,000 square foot building.

North Chicago

Shar-Ways Mini Mart, Inc. of North Chicago has once again filed for a liquor license with the City Council after being unsuccessful for five consecutive years. Owner Sharon Bower, whose store is located on the corner of Green Bay and Buckley Rds., has been sending liquor license requests to the Council once every few months, according to City Clerk Tim Miller. He said the city's license committee currently is reviewing the request - again.

If so, Hackney's is where you can find these two entrees that made this chain of family-run restaurants famous.

"I don't think he had this in mind," said Ed Masterson, referring to the founder of Hackney's and the growth that the business has gone through. Masterson is currently a family stockholder in Hackney's and the manager of the Lake Zurich location.

In 1933, after the government repealed WWI laws prohibiting beer, Jack and Helen Hackney opened a small bar in their two-car garage at 1241 Harms Ave. in Glenview.

"He thought there was some future in the big hamburger," said Masterson. And with homemade dark rye bread from his wife, the Hackneyburger was born. Regretfully, Jack and Helen never got a chance to see the business expand as they died in 1936 and 1939, respectively.

Helen's nephew, Jim Masterson inherited the business. Jim married in 1939 and he and his new wife, Kitz, decided to operate Hackney's.

Hackney's was soon a flourishing restaurant and the Mastersons looked like they were headed for the top.

But when WWII hit in the 1940's rationing and a decline in customers nearly put the restaurant out of business.

Miraculously, Hackney's was able to survive and by 1956 had outgrown the Harms Ave. location. Jim wanted to remodel the present location, but he found that Glenview zoning ordinances would prevent this.

Discouraged by the inability to expand on Harms, Jim opened another Hackney's just two miles away on Lake St. in Glenview. Many people at the time viewed the idea of opening a branch restaurant only two miles away as foolish.

"People thought it was a risk, but it never was a problem," Ed Masterson said.

Jim's gambit paid off and the restaurant continued to grow. The year 1956 was also the time Hackney's introduced onion rings to their menu. Onion rings are now as synonymous with the Hackney's reputation as the Hackneyburger.

By 1965, Jim had seven children wanting to get in on the family business. So in that year, Hackney's opened up a new location in Wheeling.

Continued growth prompted the opening of the Lake Zurich location in 1969 and the opening of the Palos Park location in 1986.

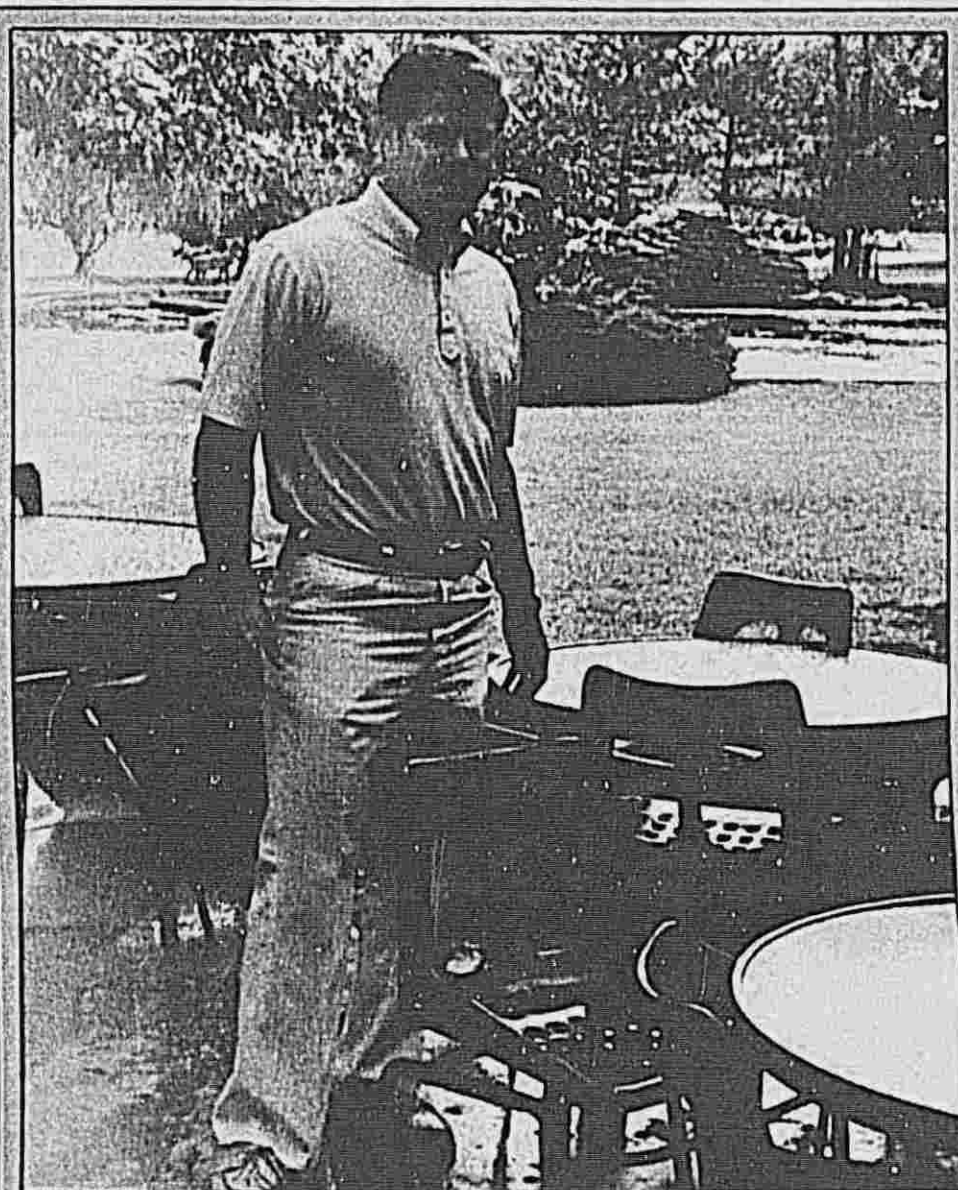

Jim Masterson died in 1987, but his wife, Kitz, continued with the business and is still the chief executive officer.

"It's a very family-oriented business," Kitz said. She went on to explain that Hackney's doesn't cater to just a specific group of people. "We have a pretty electric crowd."

The Hackney's chain serves more than one million customers a year, according to Ed.

And what can be attributed to the success of this business?

There seems to be three predominant factors; quality, friendliness and family.

Business with a smiling face

Ed Masterson, family stockholder and manager of Hackney's restaurant in Lake Zurich, says fairness, putting out the best product possible and friendly faces is what has made Hackney's the success it is today.—Photo by Caron Krebs

"We have a very good quality product and we have a friendly attitude," said Kitz.

Keeping the business in the family is also very important to the Mastersons because as Ed said, "there's someone who has a vested interest in the business."

Hackney's doesn't have any current plans for expansion, but if the past is any indication of the future then the business should continue to be a success.

If Hackney's had a motto it would probably be, "Be fair, put out the best product you can, and do that with a friendly face," Ed said.

Medical center purchased by drug firm next door

Hawthorn Place Medical Center in Libertyville has been sold to Hollister Inc. Hollister serves as a worldwide manufacturer and marketer of specialized medical products for health care professionals and consumers.

The three-story, 37,000-square-foot structure at 1900 Hollister Drive, adjacent to Hollister's corporate headquarters, now is 91 percent occupied, exclusively housing medical and dental practices and various support services.

Largest of the tenants in the building is Hawthorn Place Surgi-Center, an outpatient treatment center complex. It occupies some 7,000 square feet after undergoing a recent 30 percent expansion.

Hawthorn Place Medical Center was designed by Holabird & Root on a "medical module" for efficient space utilization. The medical center, opened in 1979, was updated in 1987 to provide a "warmer" ambience to the heavily trafficked public areas.

L.J. Sheridan & Co., as exclusive leasing/management and ultimate sales agent, directed the renovation of the building's atrium lobby and other public areas.

Situated on a picturesque five-acre site, Hawthorn Place Medical Center is near Milwaukee Ave., which is also Rte. 21, a major four-lane divided highway. The site, which is bounded on the east by the Des Plaines River, offers covered, private indoor parking and surface parking for some 200 vehicles.

The building has an oversized elevator equipped to handle wheelchairs and other ambulatory vehicles, as well as high-efficiency HVAC (heating, ventilating, and cooling) system with individual office controls.

THE LAST WORD IN SAVINGS

Growing old is no reason to stop growing.

Someday, you may need special care for an elderly person you love. That's when you'll be glad you know about Hillcrest Retirement Village.

Hillcrest is an intermediate care nursing center. But more important, we're a group of people who care enough to respond to other needs as well. Needs for compassion. Companionship. And Comfort. We offer therapy for the mind as well as the body. With activities that challenge both. From continuing education classes to daily exercise classes to arts, music and crafts.

We believe the most important part of elderly care is caring.

It's not the warm, relaxed surroundings that make Hillcrest so special. It's the attitude that flourishes in such a pleasant atmosphere.

For a detailed brochure, write Hillcrest Retirement Village (an Intermediate Care Nursing Center), at 1740 N. Circuit Drive, Round Lake Beach, Illinois 60073. Or call Ruth Lange at (312) 546-5301. It's a decision you would feel good about.

News, Views & Questions About Your Eyes

By

Robert L. Epstein, M.D., Director
Illinois Center for Corrective Eye Surgery

QUESTION: Would you please explain to me what a cataract actually is?

ANSWER: A cataract is a clouding of the normally clear lens of the eye. This clouding, a natural aging of the lens in most cases, prevents light from passing through the lens to the back of the eye, or retina. Much like the lens of your camera focuses light on the film, the lens of your eye focuses light on the retina. If the front of your camera's lens becomes dirty or fogged, then the picture taken will be hazy or blurred.

Savings and Loan Associations to merge July 31

Paul P. Gergen, president and Chief Executive Officer of Kenosha Savings and Loan Assn., has announced that Kenosha Savings has completed a merger agreement with North Chicago Federal Savings and Loan, an Illinois Thrift Institution. The merger will be completed on July 31, pending state and federal regulatory approval.

Libertyville to better serve customers in the Lake County area.

North Chicago Federal, located at 1011 14th St. was established in 1912. It currently has 11 employees which will join the KS&L staff. As of March 31, the association had 37.9 million dollars in assets.

Their board of directors has six members, one of which will become a member of Kenosha Savings Board. The remaining board members will form an advisory board for the North Chicago area.

Here are some figures showing what KS&L will look like after the merger using March 31, 1989 information. The merged assets will be approximately $370.6 million with net worth of $36.6 million. The joint savings deposits will be $295.5 million, and mortgage loans of $309.2 million.

If everything is completed on schedule, this will be the first interstate merger between a Wisconsin and Illinois S&L to be consummated. With the acquisition of North Chicago Federal, Kenosha Savings and Loan will become the ninth largest S&L in Wisconsin.

Center serves exporters

Small and medium-sized businesses looking to expand their markets might try thinking "global." At the College of Lake County (CLC), the Center for Economic Development has established an International Trade Resource Center (ITRC) to assist area business and industry in gaining entry into the international marketplace, or to expand their present trade activity.

"Many businesses think they are limited to a certain geographic area," said Glen Morgan, associate dean of CLC's Center for Economic Development. "International trade opens up a new avenue of marketing and can increase the potential for profits."

Statistics compiled by the federal government show that U.S. to-way trade totalled $677 billion in 1987, with Illinois exporting $6.9 billion.

"Many companies don't realize the possibilities that might exist for them in international trade," said Morgan. "That's why the ITRC was established."

The ITRC offers a number of services, including seminars and workshops for present and would-be exporters, a referral network of agencies and consultants and trade leads via on-line computer networks and publications. Other resources include manuals on exporting and importing, BNA publications and reference data, information about individual countries and the Statistical Classification of Domestic and Foreign Commodities (Schedule B books) containing the new commodity numbers effective Jan. 1, 1989.

The center can also point businesses to other resources of assistance such as the Illinois Export Development Authority (IEDA), which offers low-cost low-risk loans to smaller firms that would otherwise find it difficult to obtain the financing they need to compete more aggressively in the global marketplace.

For more information call Glen Morgan at (312)223-3615.

Task force sets up committees

Grayslake's Impact Fee Task Force has broken down into small groups in order to investigate specific areas.

"We talked about our goals and ideas and broke up into three committees," Grayslake Mayor Marvin Smith, chairman of the task force, said.

At the first-ever meeting of the task force, the three committees which were set up were: impact fee structure and ordinance, impact fee analysis and implementation.

Grayslake Village Manager Mike Ellis is chairman of the impact fee structure committee which has a Sept. 1 deadline for a report.

Richard Anderson is chairman of the impact fee analysis committee which will give an October report.

The implementation committee, headed by Round Lake Beach Mayor Carl Schimpf, will have its report ready by Dec. 1.

College of Lake County, Grayslake Community Park Dist., Grayslake Area Public Library, Grayslake Community High School, Grayslake Fire Protection Dist., Third Lake and Grayslake Dist. 46 are represented on the task force which held its initial meeting at Grayslake Village Hall.

Mallard Ridge Estates

Among the six floor plans offered at Mallard Ridge Estates in Lindenhurst is Plan 600, a 2,690 square-foot, two-story home with four bedrooms, two and a half baths and basement. The community, developed by Red Seal Development Corp., consists of 122 semi-custom single family homes.

Models now open

Three model homes have opened at Mallard Ridge Estates, a community of 122 semi-custom homes in north suburban Lindenhurst.

Available for viewing are a ranch, split-levels and a two-story--can be purchased from plans.

Mallard Ridge Estates' six floor plans range in size from 1,848 to 3,015 square feet and in price from $148,900 to 209,900, depending upon the site selected.

Lots range in size up to 19,000 square feet. Many are located on cul-de-sacs and are heavily wooded or have water views.

"Mallard Ridge Estates is a community that offers a peaceful environment," said David A. Hoffman, president of Northbrook-based Red Seal Development Corp., developers of Mallard Ridge. "The location in Lindenhurst appeals to buyers who want a home in an area that isn't as intensively developed."

"There is a distinctly different look and feel to the area," Hoffman said. "Mallard Ridge is on the fringe of the rural countryside yet the Tri-State Tollway just a few minutes east, allows quick access to the north suburbs, O'Hare Airport and Chicago."

Buyers can select from three elevations which are available for each home design at Mallard Ridge.

Early buyers of homes at Mallard Ridge Estates will receive a bonus gift package that includes a choice of a Kohler Whirlpool tub or standard brick fireplace, or a package consisting of a burglar alarm system, central vacuuming system, microwave oven, music and intercom system, and an electric garage door opener.

Standard features at Mallard Ridge Estates include stained oak interior doors and casings, ceramic tile floors in the foyers and baths, central air conditioning, two-car attached garages wall-to-wall carpeting, and Andersen Perma-Shield insulated windows.

At the center of Mallard Ridge is a 5-1/2-acre park with two tennis courts, a regulation-size baseball field, basketball court and jogging trail.

Mallard Ridge is located west of Munn Road set back from Grand Ave., approximately seven miles west of the Tri-State Toll-way (Int. 94).

Office hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily.

Film Review

With the biggest movie of this or any other summer to date having opened a week ago, everyone has been inundated by "Batman" paraphernalia of all sizes, types and shapes, and the lines waiting to see this Bat-epic, haven't shortened one bit.

"Batman" has already broken the record-making ticket sales of "Indiana Jones," in its first week.

And by the looks of all the Batman merchandising, that ranges from shirts to haircuts, to replicas of the Batmobile itself, the boys from the ad agencies are going to keep those long lines coming, both at the theater and the retail stores.

"Batman" is not a great movie, but it is one not to be missed, everyone wants to know what all this hulabaloo is about.

Warning to parents --this is one to be missed by grade school kids and younger, mainly because of its dark violent aura.

The unlikely Michael Keaton makes his own kind of Batman into a very real person, not at all like the hokey Adam West of '60s tv serial. In a weird way, Keaton's rather strange hero goes over.

Playing a villain that is just as psychotic, eerie and menacing as the one he portrayed in "The Shining," only more so, has Jack Nicholson at his hammy best as the menacing Joker.

Kim Basinger, as Batman's love interest, plays Kim Baysinger and that ain't bad!

There's nary a laugh as this uncomic strip hero fights crime in the gutters and alleys of a spooky Gotham City in his own sinister way, and all this is done by his lonely since Bat Boy never shows, either do any holy epithets.

It's a must see event, just to keep up with the Jones. We give it four out of five stars just for sheer audacity and good old American merchandising know-how. Why not!

Be there

The College of Lake County Community Gallery of Art will be featuring an exhibition entitled "Collaborations: The Efficiency of Shared Art Experience," from July 17-Aug. 17. The project's press agents say that the show will consist of proposal drawings and three-dimensional works which will allow the viewer to examine the artist's thoughts.

With Wisconsin's Summerfest going full-force, drawing thousands to the park on the shores of Lake Michigan, big-time musical events are scheduled for this weekend, culminating with "An Evening with Rod Stewart" on Friday, Randy Travis on Saturday, Tom Petty and the Heartbreakers on Sunday.

Some Chicago area ethnic fun is set for July 14, 15 and 16, at Navy Pier, when the Chicago Lakefront Polish Festival gets underway.

And you fans that love music of all kinds, especially when played under the stars, don't forget Ravinia's season is underway, Poplar Creek in Hoffman Estates and Alpine Valley, in East Troy, Wisconsin, are both going full blast.

On Friday, its Metallica; on Saturday, Sheena Easton and on Sunday, Travis will strum his way onto Poplar Creek's stage.

He's riding high

Michael Lynch, who plays the title role in Marriott Lincolnshire Theatre's smash production of 'Matador,' is seen being congratulated bullfight fan style. Standing ovation from preview audience that especially singled-out Lynch for their loudest bravos, should have the young star riding high in real life.

'Matador' draws ovation

by GLORIA DAVIS
Entertainment Editor

Take a large portion of the plot of the old-time movie, "Blood and Sand," add a dash of the doomed youthful romanticism of "West Side Story," another dash of the patriotism of "Evita," and you've got the major ingredients of Marriott Lincolnshire's smash hit production of "Matador."

Garnish this delectable theatrical dish with a lot of beautiful music written by Mike Leander, all served beautifully packaged by Producer Kary Walker and Director David Bell (who also was in on the writing of the book), and you have Marriott's newest offering, one that drew a standing ovation from the audience on press preview night.

The title role is played by Michael Lynch, who though he doesn't fit the pat physical characteristics of a matador, does a fantastic job of singing, acting and dancing, one good enough to draw cheers at the curtain call.

Jamie Dawn Gangi, a tiny package of musical dynamite, who plays the heroine, has a voice 10 times her size and just as lovely as her face.

William Akey, who is becoming a Marriott favorite, turns in one of his best performances to date as Tomas, the best friend. He does some creditable emoting in the farewell scene after the first bullfight.

Plaudits should also go to Dale Morgan, another familiar Marriott and Candlelight face, who plays the sleek matador agent. Morgan's talented vocal chords stand him in good stead in this role.

One of the reasons for the power of this show is the depth of the supporting cast which has full-blown stars such as Susan Moniz ("Wiz" and "West Side"), Ray Frewen ("King and I") and Bob Rahn ("West Side" and "Brigadoon"), playing a myriad of small parts and lending their well-known acting, singing and dancing talents to strengthen the production base.

The artistically produced "bullfights," done without a real or fake bull, deserve another well-done!

Look for a bit of clever stage trickery at the end that finishes the show with a bang.

From the powerfully dramatic opening scene, to the emotional closing one, the audience seems to sense they are seeing something special after the first few choruses of the exciting overture.

This is the story of the modern-day matador aspirant (or Rocky, etc.), who escapes the post Franco tyranny in a small Spanish village, and despite obstacles, becomes the toast of the country, only to realize that the avenging of his parent's is overshadowed when he loses sight of the really important people in his life.

'Forum,' comedy with laughs for all

by TOM WITOM

Summer is the perfect time for a light comedy. And although "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum" has its imperfections, it still fills the bill nicely.

In its reincarnation at Chicago's Goodman Theater, "Forum" has brought together the right mix of wacky performers to succeed.

Leading the way is Louis DiCrescenzo as the free-spirited slave Pseudolus, who connives every which way to secure his freedom. He's marvelous in Stephen Sondheim's bouncy tunes, from the "Comedy Tonight" opener to "Pretty Little Picture" and "Lovely."

Sharing the limelight—and no slouches in the comedic department, either—are Ross Lehman as the obliging sidekick Hysterium and Bill Busch as Senex, the master of the house bent on sowing the last of his wild oats.

Under Frank Galati's direction, "Forum" moves swiftly through its many twists and turns. Set in ancient Rome, the staging is grandiose, with reproductions of majestic mansions and mock marble pillars of goddesses.

A strong supporting cast also contributes nicely to the show. Carol Swarbrick is quite amusing as the ugly wife, Domina. George Newbern is ideal as the young master, Hero; and Marietta DePrima convinces as the lame-brained virgin, Phylla. Other scene-stealers are William Norris as Erronius, the doddering old man, and David Girolmo, the pompous warrior.

'Forum' cast sings 'Comedy Tonight'

Bowen Park

The Bowen park theatre Company will present "The amazing Adventures of Little Red Riding Hood," Aug 4, at 1 p.m.

Listing nautical definitions

by DENNIS AND MARY O'BRIEN

Here in Lake County, a lot of people either own boats or are familiar with them. So the Lakeland Newspapers Cruise group going to Alaska will probably be more knowledgeable than most.

Here's a list of nautical terms and their definitions—just to refresh your memory: bow—the front of the ship; stern—the aft, or rear of the ship; bulkheads—walls; gunwales—upper edge of ship's side (pronounced gunnels); deck—floor; hatches—doors; galley—ship's kitchen; disembark—to go ashore; port—left, as one faces the front of the ship; starboard—right, as one faces the front of the ship; wake—turbulent water marking the ship's passage through the water; knot—one nautical mile (1.5 miles) per hour. Used to determine the ship's speed.

Cancun, ten months after Gilbert

by JIM WARREN, PRESIDENT
NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

It's been almost a year since the big wind swept through the Mexican beach paradise known as Cancun. We felt it about time to see how the rebuilding has progressed.

On an earlier visit, just a month after Gilbert, we found hotels with water damaged rooms and no beaches. One even had an ocean going fishing ship washed-up on it's beach!

Well, the rooms have all been repaired, the beaches have been rebuilt, and the ship has been removed from Las Perlas's Beach. Even Club Med, which was almost completely destroyed, looks as good as new. The shop owners have all returned and are eager to take your money.

That's a point I want to cover. Just a year or two ago the people of Cancun were still not that wise about how to make big bucks off of the American tourist. It seems they have become educated.

Don't get me wrong, you can still get a bargain, but you have to use your negotiating skills! Don't pay the first price quoted for anything, especially a cab ride. Then make sure you and the driver are both talking about either pesos or dollars.

While there is still new construction on the island, it is not nearly as widespread as a year ago. The area south of the Sheraton is no longer a jungle of construction cranes.

Try the day cruise to Isla Mujeres for some fun. It makes a stop at a park called El Garrafon for a little snorkeling. Then it's on to Isla Mujeres for some shopping. If it's nightlife you're looking for, there is also a night cruise to this island.

Stained glass plus brass and saganaki at Dino's

by GLORIA DAVIS
Entertainment Editor

Lake County diners that have a taste for anything from a golden brown grilled cheese sandwich to a few bites of succulent lobster, are at the right place when they visit Dino's Den in Fox Lake.

They will dine on butcher block tables in an airy atmosphere adorned with stained glass and lots of brass as they deliberate over ordering the liver and onions, London broil, juicy ribs or a house specialty, saganaki (flaming cheese).

Guests are admonished to try a bowl of Dino's homemade soup for a special taste treat.

The Maravelas name is synonymous with fine dining in the Fox Lake area and Dino and Mary started Dino's Den 11 years ago when they undertook the first of the three remodeling jobs they have done on the building.

There is a separate lounge area which features a 3 to 5 p.m. happy hour daily. And for those who do not smoke, and are bothered by smokers while eating, Dino's has a separate No Smoking dining area.

Managers Melinda and Butch Conrad are there to greet customers everyday of the week, from breakfast, which begins at 6 a.m., to a late midnight supper and any meals and snacks served in between.

As an extra added attraction, Dino's also offers a 10 percent senior citizen discount every day.

Sammie's still offers basic American diet

by GLORIA DAVIS
Entertainment Editor

Word in the food business is that wherever a parking lot full of 18-wheelers is found, good food has to be close by.

This may be one of the reasons for the success of Sammies on Belvidere Rd. in Grayslake.

But Sammie's clientele spans more than just the trucking industry since his customers are as varied as his deli-style menu.

Sammie's draws businessmen for lunch and breakfast, teens who dote on his Chicago Style hot dogs and juicy burgers any time of the day or night, and fellas and gals of all ages, and from all walks of life, who love that good old American food, the hot dog (garnished with Sammie's famous green relish) and the char-broiled hamburger.

Most of Sammie's orders are carry-outs, since his dine-in space is very limited.

Sammie's, which had its start in Chicago, 25 years ago, is owned by Sam Guinta, who lives in Grayslake now, and Dave Keith, a Round Lake resident.

"We specialize in good service, good food and a friendly atmosphere," say the owners, who invite everyone to stop and visit their booth when in need of refreshment at the Lake County Fair, next to the main grandstand at the end of the month.

Obituaries

Margaret Virginia McGovern

nee McNichols, age 79, a Fox Lake summer resident for over 45 years and a permanent resident for the past 9 years, died Thursday June 29, 1989, at home.

She was born on May 13, 1910, in Chicago, Ill. Mrs. McGovern was a clerk for the Boise Cascade Office Supply Co. before her retirement. She was a member of the St. Peter's Catholic Church in Spring Grove.

She is survived by her daughter, with whom she made her home, Jan (Harold) Forster, Fox Lake; one brother, Thomas "Bud" (Rosemary) McNichols and one sister, Gertrude (Tom) Finucane, all of Chicago; 3 grandchildren-David, James and Jenette La Fleur, all of Fox Lake, Nieces and nephews, great nieces and great nephews also survive. She was preceded in death by her husband John J. McGovern in 1973 and by an infant daughter, Susan.

A memorial mass was celebrated for Mrs. McGovern on Saturday, July 1, at 10:00 a.m. at St. Peter's Catholic Church, Spring Grove, Ill. The family will appreciate masses or donations to the Lions Foundation of Illinois in Margaret's name.

REASONABLE PRICES - All year long

You want them to remember the good times.

One of the greatest gifts you can give your family is to pre-plan funeral arrangements. Why? Because it spares your loved ones the added agony of painful decision-making in times of grief. For more information on the advantages of pre-planning, please call us.

Upscale home plan

MUNDELEIN—Trustees will learn at their regularly-scheduled Saturday, July 8, morning meeting whether the village will get its first, true upscale home project. Cambridge Countryside was tentatively approved last year as a subdivision with lots of 15,000 square feet or larger. With the staking of a 300-foot corridor through the development by the state for the new Rte. 53, lots have been trimmed to an average of 13,000 square feet with some as small as 10,000 square feet. A committee is reviewing the project. The decision is whether ground breaking will take place in the fall for a subdivision of $225,000-plus homes or those costing less like those constructed in other Cambridge subdivisions.

Recycling starts

LIBERTYVILLE—Recycling begins Monday, July 17, when residents begin placing a container with newspapers, glass and all types of cans out with their weekly garbage. For this they will pay $1 per month, whether they recycle or not. Waste Management will return profits from the program to the village. The firm is currently conducting an intensive public education program.

Ask wider I-94

WAUKEGAN—Widening of I-94 from Lake-Cook Road north to Grand Ave. has been proposed to the Illinois Tollway Authority by county officials as part of a 20-year plan to relieve traffic congestion in Lake County. This will not happen for at least 10 years due to the need to expand the tollway system in DuPage County. State Dept. of Transportation Director Martin Buchler recommends widening the interstate because the County Board opposes the

No sewer hook-up

LAKE ZURICH—Chancellor's Court Judge John Rodosovich refused to sign the consent decree allowing Lake Zurich village to hook up to Lake County's sewers. Earlier, Village Attorney Dennis Ryan deemed invalid a petition signed by Lake Zurich residents requesting the connection to be placed on November's referendum. The 58-signature petition fell short of the required 300 signatures (one-fifth of all registered voters in the village).

Arson suspected

WAUCONDA—Last week's fire at 148 Oaks in Wauconda may have been started deliberately, according to Wauconda police. Chief Bernard Goodyear said he suspects the fire may have been set because of burn marks and burn patterns in the building. Also, he said, there was the presence of a petroleum-based substance, unknown as yet, that could have been used to accelerate the fire.

Faces 30 years

GURNEE—A Chicago teenager faces sentences of up to 30 years in jail after a Lake County grand jury has accused him in the shooting incident at Six Flags Great America. Jermaine McDonald, 17, of Chicago, was charged with mob action and armed violence. Gurnee Police Investigator Jay Patrick said the mob action charge is a Class four offense bringing with it a one to three year sentence while the armed robbery charge could bring six to 30 years. McDonald was expected to be arraigned July 7.

Lake Villa may join

FOX LAKE—Officials are overjoyed at news that the Village of Lake Villa is preparing to join the Northwest Lake County Regional Sewage System. Reading an affirmative letter from Lake Villa, Trustee Rich Bayne declared that addition of more customers will spread operational costs at the regional treatment works at Fox Lake. Bayne also reported that the Lake County Public Works Dept. will cooperate fully in assisting a connection for Lake Villa at Rte. 59. At a July 3 meeting, trustees voted approval of a $60,000 expenditure for Donohue & Assoc. Engineers to prepare final plans for July 15 delivery for much needed treatment expansion expected to cost in excess of $9 million.

Zoning committee

ANTIOCH—Because of the continuing growth of the village, the Antioch Village Board is considering the establishment of a zoning review committee to even more closely scrutinize village zoning. The committee will be made up of the village board, and two members each of the planning and zoning commissions. A soon-to-be hired village planner will be working closely with the committee.

Summer fun set

GRANDWOOD PARK—Grandwood Park Civic Assn. and Grandwood Park Dist. will jointly sponsor the Grandwood Park Summerfest on Saturday, July 22 from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. in the park located in the center of Grandwood Park. Summerfest attractions include a live radio broadcast by WXLC FM from 1 to 4 p.m., food, beverage booths, games of skill, clowns, magic shows, a prize drawing, public service displays and more. Musical entertainment will be provided by The Flares from 7 to 11 p.m. A surprise appearance by a special guest is also planned.

Youth killed

GRAYSLAKE—An Antioch Community High School graduate was struck and killed by a train July 2. L. Justin Cox, age 19, was pronounced dead at 11:45 p.m. at Condell Memorial Hospital, according to Lake County Coroner Barbara Richardson.

Centre Club will host track meet

The Centre Club of Libertyville will host the state Masters Track and Field Championship on July 8 in Libertyville.

Masters athletes, those 30 years and older, from more than 12 states are expected to participate in the day-long event at Libertyville High School, 708 W. Park (Rte. 176) in Libertyville.

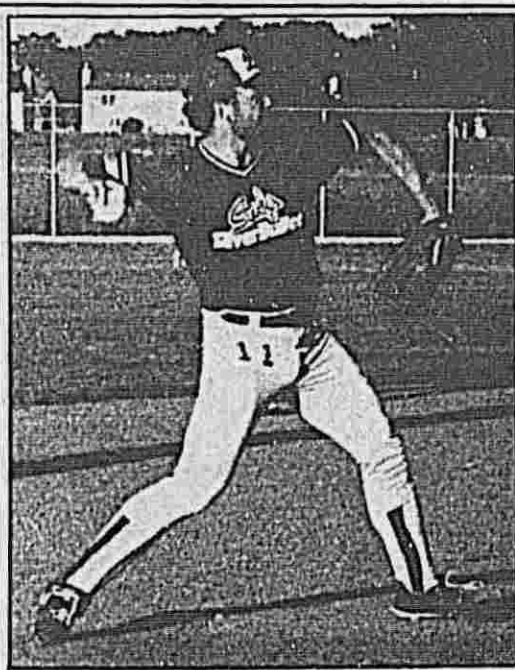

Participants will compete in 16 track and field events throughout the day. Events include: races of 100m, 200m, 400m, 800m, 1500m, 3,000 meter; field events such as the long jump, triple jump, high jump, pole vault, discus, shot put, javelin and weight throws, a 300 meter walk-race, a 3,000 meter corporate relay and a special one-mile invitational.

The Masters Championship is the culmination of four regional masters track and field meets in Illinois. Cash prizes are awarded based on overall performance from the four regional meets for each five-year age group. The Masters Champ will determine who will represent Illinois in the USA-TAC (The Athletics Congress) National Masters Track and Field Championship, July 20-30 in San Diego. The following week, for the first time in the United States, the International Veterans Games will take place in Eugene, Oregon.

According to the TAC, 21,043 master runners are officially registered in the United States today, but up to a million masters unofficially compete. The masters competitions are the first of their kind to award cash prizes and special recognition to athletes over the age of 40.

The Masters Championship was organized by the Liberty Road and Track Club, the Lake Forest - Lake Bluff Running Club and the North Shore and The Arlington Trotters.

Sponsors include The Centre Club and the First Colonial Bank of Lake County.

Watching home runs

Softball fans gathered at Softball City in Hainesville to watch the Coors Light Steele's Silver Bullets team pound home run after home run. The nationally recognized team, which won 365 games and pounded out 635 home runs last year, beat three Lake County all-star teams. Silver Bullets' home run show entertains softball fans

By STEVE PETERSON

Lakeland Newspapers

For three innings, it was a dream come true for the Classic League All-Stars.

They had gathered just at the appointed time of 7 p.m. at Softball City in Hainesville, but their opponent this night would be a bit different than their usual Thursday night foes.

The team would be going up against the Silver Bullets All-Stars, a team which can beat you with a resume. For starters, the Grafton, Ohio based team won 365 games last year and lost just 19.

The Silver Bullets, after beating the Softball City Knights 58-14 in the game before, took an early lead, 5-0, in the first inning. The Classic League squad then showed it meant business, too, scoring a single run in the first and six in the second inning. It held an 8-7 head through the third inning.

"All of our guys on their own night are the best players on their teams," Classic League Coach Greg Marek said.

The Classic League team had gained the advantage on a homer by Ira Williams off Craig Elliott in the third inning.

But then reality struck when the Silver Bullets came to bat in the fourth inning. They scored 10 runs that frame, including four homers and then added seven more in the fifth inning for a 24-8 win.

"I think they were mad at us," Marek said.

"They just buckled down," Tim Starck said.

Except for those few innings, the Coors team had no problem with the three all-star teams thrown at them. Led by the likes of Mike Macenko (who had 830 home runs, 1,667 RBIs, 1,493 hits and batted .743 last year), the traveling team entertained the crowd in Hainesville with home run after home run into the clear, but cool night.

"We try and make a game of it," Dave Neale, manager of the Coors team, said.

Neale, who points to a Sports Illustrated article as the main reason for the tradition of success for the slo-pitch team, said the squad is used to playing in major league fields and minor league parks.

"They are 15 steps ahead of us," Moe Mueller, one of the Knights players, said.

"It was a pleasure to play against them," Troy Harper of Grayslake said.

Harper was one of five Hiller and Ham players to connect for a home run in an entertaining nightcap. Other homer run hitters for the McHenry area team were Steve Lane, Don Bentz, Joe Cholak, Randy Robarse and Mark Vogt.

Paced by a three-run homer by Macenko and Ken Lori, the Bullets jumped off to a 12-0 lead and had a 16-4 advantage after two.

The Silver Bullets extended the lead to 19-4 on a homer by Greg Schulte.

Faced with a 15-run, five inning rule, the Hiller and Ham forces extended the game to six innings with a four-run fourth and 11-run fifth.

Ron Converse, a regular fan at Softball City games, brought on cheers from the crowd by scoring three runs for the Classic League team. He later was allowed to coach first base for the Silver Bullets in the third game.

LTC hosts special Olympians

The Libertyville Tennis Club will be hosting this year's Special Olympics State tournament July 15 and 16. Some 50 Special Olympians from throughout Illinois will be competing in both match play and tennis skills competitions. All participants have qualified for this event by taking part in local tournaments.

This is the first year that a separate state tennis competition is being held for Special Olympians. Celeste Pregracke, tennis pro at LTC, is tournament director and will be coordinating all aspects of the program. Since Special Olympians will not be charged to participate, all costs must be raised through in-kind goods. Any individual, service club or business wishing to make a donation, call Pregracke at LTC, (312) 362-5553 or Sandy Hutchins at the Special Olympians office, (312) 377-7250. Donations are needed for meals for athletes, coaches and volunteers.

Pregracke said an opening ceremony will begin the Olympics on July 14 at about 10 a.m.

Briscoe attends camp

Mike Briscoe of Lake Villa attended the USA Wrestling camp held at Grand Valley State University June 25-29 in Allendale, Mich.

The camp is for both the beginner and the advanced wrestler. Program provides techniques, goal setting, strength training, strategy and nutrition instruction. Camp director is Jim Scott of Grand Valley State.

Antioch's Golebiowski will attend Augustana

Mike Golebiowski, a standout athlete at Antioch High School, has announced his intention to enroll at Augustana College this fall. He plans on playing football at Augustana.

Golebiowski, who graduated from Antioch High last month, was a two-year letter winner as an offensive guard for football head Coach Dell Pechauer. He also lettered in basketball for Coach Jeff Dresser and track for Coach Norm Hahn.

Golebiowski, 6-2, 205 pounds, was all-North Suburban Conference in football and was named to the all-academic team in football, basketball and track. He was a state qualifier in track in the shot put.

Golebiowski was a member of the National Honor Society at ACHS.

At Augustana, Golebiowski will join a program which has the highest winning percentage in football for the decade of the 1980s. The Vikings have won eight straight College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin championships and have advanced to the NCAA division III playoffs a record eight straight years.

Gurnee Indians seek Shoreline win streak

Snapping losing streaks is not something the Gurnee Indians baseball team has had much experience in over the last two years.

The Indians, Shoreline League champions last year, broke a four-game loss streak with a 4-2 win over Highland Park. The win evened Gurnee's record at 5-5.

"It was nice to win again," Manager-Player Bill Surnaowicz said.

Vince Gawrecki picked up the win for the Indians, striking out 10 Highland Park batters while allowing just three hits.

Mike Galdine started the contest off on the right foot for Gurnee with a homer to start the first inning. Galdine and Mike Davenport were both three-for-four.

Earlier, Gurnee responded to a pep talk and tied Lake Forest. Gurnee led 6-0 in the early going before Lake Forest began chipping away. The visitors tied the game in the seventh inning, when it was called due to darkness.

Gurnee is off until it hosts Lincolnshire Royals in a 6 p.m. game July 6 at Faulkner Field.

Wauconda Legion squad hoping to regroup

Wauconda earlier had notched a win with a 4-0 victory over Mundelein. The winners scored twice in the second inning and once in the third and fourth.

Wauconda fell victim to a strong offensive attack by Lake Forest and a rally by Barrington in two losses last week.

Against Lake Forest, Wauconda led 1-0 after the first inning but Lake Forest scored the next 11 runs and won going away.

Things looked better for Wauconda against undefeated Barrington Monday. The loss dropped Wauconda to 2-6.

Barrington led 2-0 until Wauconda rallied for four runs in the fourth inning and another in the sixth inning. The home team then scored the deciding run in the seventh inning for a 6-5 win.

In the fourth, Gene Walters, Jamie Sensebaugh reached base before a double by Dan Richards. Scott Eckmann then delivered an RBI single.

A home run by Ken Klesch gave Wauconda a 5-2 lead.

Barrington tied the game in the seventh on a three-run homer and added another run to win the game.

Klesch was three-for-four while Sensebaugh and Dan Rapier were two-for-four for Wauconda.

Wauconda's American Legion team will be looking to close out the 1989 season on a bright note when it travels to Libertyville July 7.

Game time is 6 p.m.

Village ponders $1 a day fee for parking lot

Residents using the commuter parking lot in Grayslake will pay a fee of $1 a day.

The Grayslake Village Board unanimously voted to draft such an ordinance at its last meeting.

Construction of the parking lot at the Milwaukee Road railroad station is on schedule and is expected to be completed by Aug. 1.

The board, in other business, voted, at the recommendation of the building and grounds committee, to purchase a facsimile machine from Americom Data Systems for $1,395 and execution of a maintenance agreement for three years for a total of $550.

A dedicated telephone line will cost the village $17.58 per month and $119 to run the line to village hall.

An appropriation ordinance hearing was set for 7:15 p.m. on July 17.

In the finance committee meeting held immediately after the village board meeting, the increase in many village expenses is foreseen in many areas. The committee discussed placing $77,000 from the motor fuel tax fund into the village's general fund.

The committee voted to send to the village board a resolution to meet the prevailing wages for public work contracts as mandated by the State of Illinois.

Volunteer labor worth $200,000 for church

by BILL SCHROEDER
Lakeland Newspapers

Volunteer labor supplied by members of Indian Hill Chapel, an independent bible church, will be worth an estimated $200,000 for a major expansion program valued at $500,000.

Ground has been broken for a 60x90 foot addition to the present church at 36133 N. Fairfield Rd., Ingleside, that will house a new sanctuary, church offices and a multi-purpose basement.

The existing home of the 30-year-old congregation will house the Sunday School.

Don Wubs, a volunteer adviser, will direct construction volunteers who will swing into action once the foundation is in place. Wubs presently is concluding supervision of a volunteer church building project in Antioch.

The Rev. Sid Miller, pastor of the church that originally met in a social hall on Rollins Rd. in Round Lake Hts., then known as Indian Hill, expects to hold Christmas services in the new addition.

Among the volunteers are Ray Rosing, Ingleside; and Boyd Hart, Grayslake, founding members still active in the church.

Report contest winners

Alyce Jenkins of Wonder Lake was honored as the recipient of the Terence O'Hara Aldrich Memorial Writing Award for taking first place in the Eighth Annual Technical Communication Student Awards Contest held in April at the College of Lake County.

Jenkins received a $200 cash prize for her instruction manual "How to Develop Your Own Black and White Film."

William Fox of Libertyville, the second place winner, received a cash prize of $125 for his description of the "Red Devil Aerosol Actuator."

Bryan Combs of Lebanon, Tenn. and a recent 1989 CLC graduate, won third place and $75 for his feasibility study "Needs Analysis - Feasibility of Establishing a Student Dormitory of Housing Office."

The contest is sponsored by the CLC Technical Communications program and is funded by donations from the Terence O'Hara Aldrich Memorial Fund, CLC Student Activities and the News-Sun. Students in CLC technical writing classes are eligible to enter the contest.

Drains Run Slow?

You'll never have a slow running, or clogged drain again!
The secret? Clean drains don't run slow.

Slow drains, or periodic clogs, are SIGNALS that a thick layer of GOOK is choking your pipes. Grease, hair, and other waste sticks to your pipes, with every use. This gook deposits along the entire length of the pipe. It chokes your pipes gradually, as it gets thicker and thicker.

Conventional drain openers can't fix slow drains. They react chemically on the surface of the gook. To be effective, they must remain in contact with the waste. Even a small tunnel through the gook lets them flow out to the sewer, leaving the gook behind.

In the past, the only way to remove this build-up was to root your pipes. But that's expensive, and often only a temporary help.

Now, with just a few minutes each month, you can easily clean out your pipes... and KEEP them clean with Plumb Clean. Its totally unique formula clings, and penetrates deep into the gook. That is what allows it to liquify even years of build-up. Plumb Clean will clean the entire length of your pipes. It will make your drains run like new, when used as directed. This penetrating action is so revolutionary, we stand behind Plumb Clean with a money-back guarantee!

Saves Money

A 1 lb. container of Plumb Clean holds up to 41 drain treatments. Even if drain openers could fix slow drains, you would have to buy over 10 quart bottles to get the same number of treatments. Plumb Clean costs about 35¢ per treatment. We don't know of anything that cleans drains for less.

Safe Too

Conventional drain openers are dangerous chemicals. They can injure eyes on contact. They can release deadly vapors, in some situations. Some may damage your fixtures. Plumb Clean will not burn skin, or eyes. It will not release harmful fumes. When used as directed, it is 100% safe for people, and of course all plumbing.

So, if your drains are giving you a signal, act now. Start cleaning your drains the safe, effective, guaranteed way. Get Plumb Clean today!
